THE

EDINBURGH ANNUAL REGISTER,

FOR 1812.

THE

EDINBURGH

ANNUAL REGISTER,

For 1812.

VOL. FIFTH.——PART FIRST.

EDINBURGH:

Printed by James Ballantyne and Co.

FOR JOHN BALLANTYNE AND CO. EDINBURGH;

LONGMAN, HURST, REES, ORME, AND BROWN, LONDON;

AND THE OTHER PROPRIETORS.

1814.

CONTENTS

TO

VOLUME FIFTH, PART FIRST.

CHAP. I.

PAGE.

Domestic Affairs. Meeting of Parliament. Prince Regent's Speech on Opening the Session. State of the King's Health. King's Household Establishment. Debates in Parliament on some Points connected with the Civil List. Droits of Admiralty. Leeward Island Duties. Provision to the Princesses, - - - - - - 1

CHAP. II.

Debate on the Constitution of the Ecclesiastical Courts. Sir William Scott's Bill on this Subject. Measures adopted with reference to the State of the Currency. Lord Holland's Motion respecting ex officio Informations. Debates on Military Punishments. Mr Brand's Motion for a Reform in Parliament, - - - - 28

CHAP. III.

Returns under the Population Act laid before Parliament. Barrack Estimates. Debates on some recent Appointments. Mr Creevy's Motion respecting the Tellership of the Exchequer. Sinecure Office Bill. The Budget. Finance Resolutions, - 67

CHAP. IV.

State of the Nightly Watch and Police of the Metropolis. Account of the Riots in different Parts of the Country. Bill for increasing the Punishment of Persons breaking or destroying Frames. Bill for preventing the administering or taking unlawful Oaths. Report of a Secret Committee on the disturbed State of certain Counties. Bill for the Preservation of the Public Peace in the disturbed Counties, 97

CHAP. V.

State of Parties at the Beginning of the Year. The Prince Regent's Letter to the Duke of York. Lord Borringdon's Motion for an Address to the Prince to form a more extended Administration. The Ministers retain their Places. Assassination of Mr Perceval; his Character, - - - - - - - - - - 116

CHAP. VI.

State of the Administration after the Death of Mr Perceval. Mr Stuart Wortley's Motion in the House of Commons for an Address to the Prince Regent on this Subject. The Prince entrusts the Marquis Wellesley with Powers to form a new Administration. Publication of the Statement of the Causes which had induced the Marquis to retire from Office. Failure of the Negociation, and Resignation by Marquis Wellesley of his Powers. Discussions in Parliament on this Subject. Lord Moira is entrusted with Powers to form an Administration, but fails. Debates and Explanations in Parliament. The Colleagues of the late Mr Perceval are confirmed in Power, - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - 153

CHAP. VII.

Affairs of Ireland. Conspiracy for extirpating Heretics and dissolving the Union. Charges made against the Irish Government. Reasons assigned for bringing forward the Catholic Question, and the Discussion of the State of Ireland, at an early Period of the Session of Parliament. Result of the Parliamentary Proceedings on the State of Ireland. Mr Parnell's Motion on the Subject of Irish Tithes, - - - 184

CHAP VIII.

The Catholic Question. Arguments for and against the Claims of the Catholics. Reflections on the Subject, and on the future Prospects of that Body, - - 198

CHAP. IX.

Affairs of America. Retrospective View of the Disputes betwixt the British and American Governments. Progress of the Differences, - - - - - 248

CHAP. X.

American Affairs continued. Declaration of the British Government relating to the disputed Points of Maritime Law. Secret Mission of Captain Henry to the United States. Renewed Discussion on the Orders in Council. The British Government rescind them with respect to America. America still dissatisfied. Declares War against England. Capture of the Guerriere and Macedonian Frigates. Destruction of the Armies of Generals Hull and Wadsworth, - - - - 266

CHAP. XI.

Affairs of the Peninsula. Retrospect of the War in that part of the World. Projects of Lord Wellington. Capture of Ciudad Rodrigo—Of Badajos. Destruction of the Bridge of Almarez, - - - - - - - - - - - 287

CHAP. XII.

Progress of the Campaign. The British advance upon Salamanca. They carry by Storm the Forts which the French had constructed in that Place. Marmont retires, but on being reinforced, resumes the Offensive. Battle of Salamanca. The British enter Madrid and Valladolid. They besiege Burgos. Causes of the Failure of this Enterprise, and of the subsequent Retreat of the Allies, - - - 314

CHAP. XIII.

Affairs of Russia. Causes which led to the Rupture betwixt Russia and France. Preparations of the Parties. The French invade Russia. Progress of the Campaign till the Advance of the Invader upon Smolensko, - - - - - - - 332

CHAP. XIV.

Russian Affairs continued. Capture of Smolensko by the French. Battle of Borodino. The French occupy Moscow. Their unsuccessful Attempts to negociate. They evacuate Moscow, - - - - - - - - - - - - 393

CHAP. XV.

Russian Affairs continued. The French prepare to retreat—They are surrounded by Difficulties. Account of the numerous Engagements which occurred during the Retreat—Of the Sufferings of the French—Of the Dispersion of their Armies, and their Expulsion from the Russian Empire. Buonaparte returns to Paris, and the Russians occupy Wilna, - - - - - - - - - - - 379

APPENDIX.—GAZETTES, - - - - - - - - i—lxiv

CONTENTS

TO

VOLUME FIFTH, PART SECOND.

PAGE.

CHRONICLE, containing brief Accounts of the various Public Occurrences of the Year, - - - - - - - - - 1—211
APPENDIX, consisting of British and Foreign State Papers, - - 212—319
PUBLIC ACCOUNTS of Great Britain and Ireland, - - - 320—340
List of Patents in 1812, - - - - - - - - 341
Review of the Arguments on the Corn Laws, - - - - 343
Memoir of the Life and Writings of the Rev. James Grahame, - - 384
Account of the Campaigns of Montrose, translated from the Gaelic Language, 416
Copy of a Letter from the Earl of Perth, Lord High Chancellor of Scotland, to the Laird of Blair Drummond, 26th July, 1691, - - - 429
Extracts from a Journal kept during a Coasting Voyage through the Scottish Islands, - - - - - - - - - - 431

ORIGINAL POETRY.

The Ballad of King Gregory, - - - - - - - - i
Barnard, a Monastic Legend, - - - - - - - - xii
Sonnet to Sir Thomas Graham, on his Return to Spain, after a short Visit to this Country, - - - - - - - - - xvi
Verses written among the Ruins of Roxburgh Castle, - - - ib.
Lines written in the Cave of Fingal, (not orig.) - - - - xviii
Address by Lord Byron, spoken by Mr Elliston at the opening of the new Theatre Royal, Drury Lane, (not orig.) - - - - - - xix
Farewell Address, spoken by Mrs Siddons, on leaving the Stage, 29th June, 1812, written by Horace Twiss, Esq., (not orig.) - - - - xx
The Cottage of the Flora, a Poem, - - - - - xxi
The Fettering of Fancy, - - - - - - - xxiv
On my Brother's leaving Home without my seeing him, - - xxv
Sonnet, by a Lady on visiting the Grave of her Child, - - xxvi
Sonnet, written on the Day appointed for the National Thanksgiving, the Close of 1812, - - - - - - - - ib.

Lists of Births, Marriages, and Deaths, - - - - xxvii
The London General Bill of Mortality, - - xxviii
List of Promotions, - - - - - - xli
New Publications for 1812. - - - - xlv
Index, - - - - - - - lxv